

Satellite radio operators such as XM and Sirius were granted licenses under their promise to serve on a nationwide basis only. Now these operators are launching LOCAL weather and traffic causing harm to local broadcasters such as me and my company.

It is time for the FCC to step in and disallow local programming by satellite radio broadcasters. I support the NAB petition and ask you to act in favot of terrestrial radio broadcasters.

Thank You.

David Reinhart